

Portland Trail Riders Club

New Member Rules

- You must fill out a new member application and liability waiver. Please bring them to a scheduled club meeting.
- Member dues the first year are $200/$400 depending on chosen membership.
- You must complete your designated hours per year.
- You must attend and work 5 out of 6 events.
- First year members are required to flag at races unless otherwise directed by the Executive Board.
- New members are on a probationary period for one year. After your first year is complete, the club will decide if you are accepted as an active member. If accepted into the club, you will receive a gate key.
- You must attend 50% of the club meetings
- You must abide by posted track hours.
- NO riding one week prior to race days or when directed by the Board for race setup.
- Probationary members do not have voting rights.
- You are only allowed to ride the track as a guest of an Active Member during your first year. You may only bring immediate family members with you (household members). No guests during your first year.